

A Learning Option Declaration form is being mailed home to the current address we have on file along with the report card. Please look for this important envelope. The learning intention form is due back to Chaney-Monge in the addressed stamped envelope. A video explanation of the options and detailed logistics are linked to our website and Facebook page. It is important to read the materials and return your learning option choice by January 22nd.